

The Grant, Dent and Sappington Families

Saturday, November 19, 2022

1 - 3 pm

Library of Americana and Decorative Arts at Historic Sappington House

Ulysses S. Grant National Historic Site

is pleased to partner with Sappington House for this program, commemorating the bicentennial year of Grant's birth.

Ashton Farrell, Ulysses S. Grant NHS park ranger, will introduce the program, interview Emma Dent Casey and be available for questions.

Emma Dent Casey, President U. S. Grant's sister-in-law, portrayed by Anne Williams, recalls her life, including her courtship with Thomas Jefferson Sappington during a lively conversation. She tells stories from her memoirs, sprinkling in random thoughts about 1909 St. Louis, in an entertaining interview format.

Alyssa Hunter of The Riding Center of Freeburg, IL, will talk about Courtship on Horse-back and demonstrate lady-like riding with her thoroughbred horse. Hummel, her horse, has impressive bloodlines, which includes triple-crown racehorse Secretariat. Petting encouraged.
